Notice to Students with outstanding fees to proceed with their semester one examination – Full Time programs on Madang Campus

This is to advise that students still owing fees as of the 31st of May 2024 will have an extension to meet your fee deadline announced early next week. The notice will also inform you of the de-registration dates and the process that will follow.

Students will and should continue your studies as normal and sit your semester one examination.

I wish you all the best in your semester one examination.
