

DWU Teaching Excellence Awards 2024

Nomination Form

Closing Date: Friday 4th October 2024

The DWU Teaching Excellence Awards recognize the efforts of highly effective and dedicated teachers, affirming their contribution to the university.

- A group of at least three students must nominate the lecturer.
- The lecturer must agree to the nomination.

Details of person being nominated (nominee)

Title and name: _____

Faculty: _____ Department: _____

Declaration

“I agree to this nomination. In doing so, I agree that the Selection Committee may use the following information to help in the assessment of my nomination:

- Records of two years' most recent student evaluations
- Details of lecture notes and other resources, from DWU Moodle or other
- Advice from the Head of Department
- Advice from the Faculty Dean

If I am given an award, I agree to present a seminar on strategies for good teaching.”

Signature: _____

Reason for the Nominations (one-page maximum)

The students making the nomination must state in the space provided below their reasons for the nomination and why they believe the nominee deserves an award.

Statement by the nominee (one-page maximum)

The nominee must provide a reflection on their approach to their teaching, making reference to the scholarship of teaching and learning.

Details of students making the nomination (must be at least 3 students)

Name: _____

Student ID: _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____

Name: _____

Student ID: _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____

Name: _____

Student ID: _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____

Name: _____

Student ID: _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____

The completed form must be sent via email or handed to Ms. Matiadan Luben, Executive Officer to the Office of the Vice President Academic Affairs, by 4:30pm on Friday 4th October, 2024.

Ms. Luben is located in Room 18 of the Postgraduate and Research Centre, Madang Campus.

Email: mluben@dwu.ac.pg